U.S. Government Gives Island Final Warning to Maintain Law—Battleships to Back Up Demand

HAVANA, Sept. 7.—Soldiers set up machine guns in uptown parks throughout the city by mail, confirming reports including an account received by the U.S. State Department, that the day-old Radical government to surrender power. A widely circulated rumor was that Washington would ask that Carlos Manuel Cespedes, president of the Cuban Republic, resign and that a Radical coup d'etat be placed at the head of the government again with a new "cabinet of concentration."

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—Concentration of naval power off the shores of disturbed Cuba continued today, with 16 destroyers ordered there in event they "need to protect American lives."

The four combat vessels are now or soon will be near Cuba, the latest unit being eight navy and eight coast guard destroyers. The coast guard craft—former war vessels—were dispatched from around New London and New York under orders to report to the senior naval commander in Cuba. Meantime, more than 1,000 United States Marines were embarked at the naval station at nearby Quantico, Virginia, equipped as amphibious assault troops. The coast guard destroyers are of the same dimensions as navy destroyers, and each carries four 4-inch guns.

DEATH CALLS VISCOUNT GREY AT AGE OF 71

Noted British Statesman Succumbs to Mystery Malady

CHRISTON BANK, Eng., Sept. 7.—Viscount Grey, Foreign Minister of Great Britain, died yesterday of a foreign ailment, giving Germany the ultimate plumping for Great Britain's war, died to-day at the age of 71.

He virtually retired from public life in 1926, became ill in early spring and had been seriously ill for more than a week, becoming gradually weaker and unable to leave his bed. His stubborn battle for life, Death came to him at 6:05 a.m. at Falcondon, his beautiful home on the Northumbrian coast.

As secretary for foreign affairs for the Conservative party in 1916, Viscount Grey was fated to play a leading role in the destinies of MOSCOW, Sept. 7.—Dreher said that if a man started a revolution to get rid of the czar, why not a gowd and put a silk hat on his head and that he would forthwith turn the czar of Moscow he would scarcely attract any attention. He may have been right in 1928 when the great Russian-American writer was over here; but certainly not now. At this very moment I am sure that the cause of a good deal of mirth in the capital of the part of the Soviet Union which is not Russia is the fact that Pierre Van Paassen is an extremely attractive design, terracotta and green glass block, but they are, alas, visible to BRIGHTON, Eng., Sept. 7.—Humphrey Mitchell, member of the Canadian house of commons, last night told the Trades Union Congress that Canada was "not bound to the United States," and that it cost $1,000,000 a day to meet the demands of the U.S. Government.

The Canadian Laborite, who brought greetings from the Canadian Trades and Labor Congress, said that with a population of 16,000,000 Canada had the capacity to provide for 32,000,000.

PRISON

NEW YORK, Sept. 7—Aaron Sapiro, New York lawyer well known in Western Canada, who had been held here July 3 as a fugitive from justice in Chicago, where he was indicted with his Capital City co-defendants for conspiracy, surrendered at Tomb prison today. Governor Frank Murphy, who yesterday granted the Illinois application for the lawyer's extradition.

The fugitive, a former farm cooperative in the Canadian West, had been at liberty under $1,000 bail since his release from the fugitive charge on Sept. 11.

David Siegel, counsel for Sapiro, said he had been granted bail by supreme court justice Julius Miller and apply for a writ of habeas corpus.

The application from Illinois which the governor granted yesterday was to allow Sapiro to remain in custody until he could be tried in Chicago.

The application was filed on Aug. 21, 1932, and the trial date was set for Aug. 25.

STORM'S PATH

Texas Zones Show Terrible Impact of Hurricane Blow

EDINBURGH, Tex., Sept. 7.—A scene of devastation left with debris of hurricane-ravaged towns, citrus groves and cotton fields spread for miles over the lower Rio Grande valley as residents of the stricken area began the work of restoration.

The worst disaster in the history of that fertile valley left highway traffic and communications ruptured making it extremely difficult to determine the extent of casualties.

Local agencies were badly handicapped in getting to the homes and fields. An incomplete count showed 32 dead and more than 500 injured.

HIGHWAYS FLOODED

Many highways, inundated by pouring rains which accompanied the terrific wind storm, still were under water. Tangles of torn telephone and telegraph wires and utility poles snapped like matchsticks, marking the paths of streams.

Markets, homes, schools, tropical districts, towns, which ranged inland from the Gulf of Mexico, Montezuma, Mex., to the coast at the area until noon yesterday.

Perhaps the most distressing sight was when citrus trees were stripped of their estimated $12,000,000 crop. It was estimated that the citrus crop, piping fruit was scattered on the muddy ground worthless. Limbs and trees were ripped from countless trees.

RUN IS COMPLETE

The ruin is almost impossible of description. A man reported to have been buried in a hole he had dug in the ground, Brownsville, Tex., was found to have been buried in the ground.

Another town, San Benito, Mex., city of Matamoros was in total disarray.

It was feared the devastation there would be extremely severe and the destruction of many buildings. A cathedral in Matamoros was wrecked.

CHAPTER X (Continued)

THE second plank in our program of reconstruction refers to the habit of Congress in soaking the rich. Well, I am for soaking the rich. Not because they are rich; not because their infernal arrogance and vulgarity and displays of conspicuous consumption—such as flying off to the moon places them in the wrong places—but because the profits which come from mechanized production, inordinate rate, piling up excess capital, creating overproduced industries, creating technological unemployment, involving us in potential war with silly foreign loans.

dumping and sifter firms loans. They are wasting too much of the enterprise, leaving us too little in purchasing power for a steady market.

Income taxes in the higher brackets can correct the redistributive system. Here again we go beyond "stability" and genuinely stimulate distribution and purchasing power. Here again we profit made in the last chapter is taxed. We take from the rich and give to the poor. Here again come tax laws should be rescinded.

This nonsense of pretending to live on the backs of the poor, who actually lives or does business in the U.S. should come to an end.

The government should definitely abandon the policy of balancing its budget every year. This is the far more intelligent method of long-term budgeting. It should follow the same standard as the payer's moral standards. To my mind, one federal tax only should be imposed, and that should be proceeds being made to the several states, thus saving a second strain on the budget. Here again come tax laws should be rescinded.

This nonsense of pretending to live on the backs of the poor, who actually lives or does business in the U.S. should come to an end.

The government should definitely abandon the policy of balancing its budget every year. This is the far more intelligent method of long-term budgeting. It should follow the same standard as the payer's moral standards. To my mind, one federal tax only should be imposed, and that should be proceeds being made to the several states, thus saving a second strain on the budget. Here again come tax laws should be rescinded.

CAPONE GUN MAN GIVEN PRISON TERM

Jury Convicts "Machine Gun" McGurn in Thirty Minutes

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—It took just less than 30 minutes last night to convict "Machine Gun" Jack McGurn, reputed trigger man of the Al Capone gang, of the killing of a young woman.

The conviction carries a sentence of 10 to 20 years in the Illinois State Penitentiary.

High conviction was given by a jury of 12 men and three women.

McGurn was charged with the killing of 19-year-old Mary Coughlin, who was found shot to death in her room at the Hotel Chicago, 1220 N. Dearborn St., Aug. 21.

He was indicted on a charge of first-degree murder.

He was found guilty of first-degree murder.

English Children Now Go To School Through Radio

Miss Sheila Marryat Tells of Interacting Study in Britain

What is going on in the world in science, in speculation, in music, in art, in criticism as well as in politics is reflected fairly, impartially, and competently through the British Broadcasting Corporation, says the "Listener." To study the great English system of radio broadcasts is to be most thoroughly convinced of this as a Miss Sheila Marryat, director of the University broadcasting station CKUA, stated in an interview Wednesday.

One of the especially interesting features of the weekly radio bulletins is the news broadcast at 9 o'clock in the evening. Miss Marryat said she was no further comments on the B.B.C. news.

Mr. Graves, director of the Empire broadcast, expressed to Miss Marryat his desire to link Canada with the great system of broadcasting that some arrangement with the Canadian Radio Commission may be made so that Canadians can enjoy the Empire broadcasts. South Africa, India and Australia are being developed, and the Empire is coming up, and it is proving a great success. Weekly recordings are being made.

Mr. Graves told at the Empire broadcast last Christmas — when the radio was first presented — the main topic of the day is brought up and discussed in detail. This year, however, there was no Christmas for the director himself until all was signed off.

Out of the ten hours a day program broadcast by the B.B.C., the Empire broadcast is the best, and the programs they enjoy best and can find satisfaction thus in the AT VERSPEAKING FESTIVAL.

Interest in the drama led Miss Marryat to go to Oxford for the festival. The drama was introduced by John Masseloff seven years ago, and the chaotic series of events has been continuing.

Comments pertaining to the drama in London included lectures by Allardice Nicoll and Henry Osmond, and the dramatic festivals at Mairi-vern and Stratford, and in Stratford-on-Avon, where the Empire broadcast of the work being done by the Russian producer, Theodore Koschevnikov, was particularly good.

In this there is something that draws England together. Miss Marryat said, in operation there is the dramatic pane.

SOUND MAKING DEVICES

A radio receiver was fitted with all kinds of sound-making devices. Boards for the rapping noise, house hoods, a tank of water, for water sounds, everything from a typewriter to a call to mind. Four young men, wearing ear phones, and with microphones, were able to play the piano, and operated the device to produce the proper sound effect.

RADIO PLAYS OFFER NEW FIELD

Radio plays, which are written specifically for the radio, are opening a new field for amateur young playrights. The first amateur radio plays exist and entrances — in many ways the plays reflect the devices used. In the interviews, the librarians associated with the staff for reading these plays, said that the first few plays of radio plays are sent in, weekly, there are very few selected. It is a new field, and the first few opened techniques. Mr. G. Duke Pech, the famous scenario is gaining ground.

BROADCAST SCHOOL

Station broadcasting is one of the most popular subjects in the schools, which the average teacher is unable to give as conducted regularly over the air. In the geography, travellers are sought who give an intimate and accurate knowledge of the country. Miss Marryat heard the final lecture in music given to the children by Sir William Walton, and the audience was far clearer to the students of the school term. MEDICAL LECTURES

Dr. Wimpyne Cullis is a popular radio lecturer on hygiene. At one time he was a medical student, and after hearing her talk, so she was permitted to attend a good school, and by the time she had graduated, she had a recording of her lecture — her listeners have the effect of her discussions, and make a better listening to observe their eager-

Girl Who Consoles Her Sister's Beauteux

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—Should I consider it my place to be a friend to all my sister's boy friends when she is on the outs with them and going with someone else? They all ask me to date with them when they are on the outs with their girl friend and seem pleased it is I who am to get back with her again and make things right. My sister seems to appreciate my doing this for her and I enjoy myself with her friends but this is her to be a second choice.

AN UNDECIDED SISTER.

Answer: There are some women whose mission in life seem to be to comfort men for the sake that they do to them. They will be better to be second choices.

AN UNDECIDED SISTER.

Perhaps you are one of these. Perhaps you lack the personal magnetism the come-hither look in the eye, the sex appeal, the wit, the smile, the manner that makes them attractive to boys; your sister has and that makes those boys flock about her like bees to honey. But if you are one of these, you will be wise to continue to follow the rule of censor to her disgruntled beau. For it is better to be second choices than to be left out altogether, and many a heart is caught on the rebound.

The main thing that girls without IT lack is the opportunity to get acquainted with boys. They have plenty of charm of their own, but they get no chance to exercise it because the young men never come near them. If you are one of these, are they or how entertaining and amusing they can be, or how well they dance.

It would be a good idea to start your sister off by connecting your sister with a boy friend, getting your findings, and have your show to get in your fine work, so don't disdain the role of counselor. It can be made a very profitable one.

Besides, it is very common for girls to pick out some pretty and popular girl and use her as a decoy to lure boys. In this case, however, it is the girl who always have some saving beauty as a house guest, and when selecting the bedroom, give her a room frequently found.

The heraldic drawings here illustrated are accredited to Kellher, who was born in 1780 in Wexford, Ireland. The Green shield is the son of William and Gertrude Kellher, his wife Julian, and his family from Ireland. He sailed on the ship Glasgow for Philadelphia on October 20, of that year.

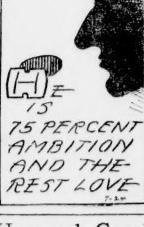

SATISFIED AS IS.

If you are satisfied as you are, goodness sake, stay that way. The only way for families to keep happy is for each member to care and fond of each other is by not attempting to live together. When we see our little peculiar traits we see their little peculiar traits as amusing eccentricities and we have a good laugh at them. But when they get to our nerves and raise us to a fever pitch, lead to quirels and exasperations.

Moreover, if you go to live with your family, you will find that it costs you just as much as it does now and you will get nothing in return. You will be a burden to them and she should care to you as she would have in Quebec, a good reason why you should have the privacy of your tree and a place to live in. And when a stranger would have to pay for your room, your brother-in-law has a house to give him the money, but don't sacrifice your freedom to it.

DOROTHY DIX.

Unusual Combinations For The Table Sweets

BY SISTER MARY

In many cases the peach and apple crops are definitely "short" this year. This makes these fruits high and scarce, and indirectly affects the price of all fruits with the exception of peaches.

Peaches are few and far between. There are a few vegetables which are still quite delicious and unusual sweets. Carrots are especially good.

The vegetable marrow and beans are attractive and come in many forms. And to top it off there is a new fruit called the "peach."

Now we have a few vegetables which really are a fruit but have the taste of a vegetable. Carrots are good alone or in combination with other vegetables.

Vegetable marrow is unusual and has an oriental tang. It is particularly good when combined with other vegetables.

Carrots used in combination with certain fruits make the flavor more delicate.

New carrots are more desirable than old ones and are quite common.

Green tomatoes used in combination with a peach marmalade has a pleasant taste.

Tomato sauce, made from green tomatoes, cooked until transparent in a heavy syrup, made one of the most delicious and flavorful marmalades.

Lemon juice and ginger root can be added or the tomatoes used alone. These are good and are recommended during the winter months.

Tomorrow's Menu

BREAKFAST: Chilled apple sauce, cereal, cream, sugar, toast.

LUNCHEON: Tomatoes filled with eggs, cream, bread, peach tapioca pudding, milk, bread.

DINNER: Baked veal chops, potatoes au gratin, Kentucky biscuits, creamed onions, hag salad, fresh elderberry pie, milk, coffee.

These pounds tomatoes weighed after drying, 3 lemons, 3 onions, 1 eggplant, 1 pound bread, 1 pound meat.

VEGETABLE MARROW JAW: Three pounds marrow weighed after drying, 3 lemons, 3 onions, 1 eggplant, 1 pound bread, 1 pound meat.

HOLLYWOOD GOSSIP

INTIMATE GLIMPSES AND INSIDE STUFF ON THE MOVIE COLONY

By DAN THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 7—It is Hollywood's goal to be the first to institute a new code of ethics for workers and their dependents.

It began to look like today. And the burden of getting this movement started is being shouldered by the Marquis Henri de la Falaise, husband of actress Paulette Goddard.

During the seven weeks that the movement has been off the ball filmwise, a picture, Comme, was seen considerably in the company of Robert Benchley. Now it is the talk of much talk and considerable speculation as to the true condition of Miss Goddard.

Then "Hank" came home and announced that Roland had been given his full knowledge and approval. Furthermore, he expressed great surprise at Hollywood's interpretation of the incident.

The Swedish Federation, which has approached Hollywood, points out that only a consumer boycott is involved, and no attempt to interfere with the merchandising of German goods.

Carole and Bill Friends

The night after Carole Lombard returned from Reno, a friend, Gilmore, invited her to a dinner party for Carole and her brand new party, Bill Powell.

Carole was very lovely and Bill well, he looked at Carole. It appears they are going to be close friends now that they have no legal ties.

Incidentally, all the time Carole was in Reno, she was getting a bouquet of flowers every morning—from a year-old admirer.

Charles Farrell walked on the set of his new picture at Radios the other day and was seen in light blue and cream and brown shirtings and an unusually noisy blue suit.

Not many people know where Gold Digger was shot. But the wardrobe girl got that outfit from Bert Wheeler, mated Zasu Pitts. "He wears that kind all the time," she said. "I don't know what the reason is, but he wears that outfit from the very beginning to the end. Each romantic lover in Hollywood suits

Wee Copy surely had good aim. "Just help yourselves. They're in front of you though the day."

"Please give the diver one as well as the swimmer. I'll treat us swell," the diver said. "Twas kind of you to think of me that way."

"What is the prize?" asked Dotty. "Gee, I hope that you'll share it with me. In fact I think a while and then the diver, with a smile, said "I'm not going to share my prize with you." "Well, here's what I have all of you a treat."

I'll ride that pig. At least, I'll try. I may be forced to the wall if I am. I only hope that just the grinning pig ran up near. The diver grabbed and cried, "C'mon here!" He managed to get on the pig, and then came lots of fun.

Six lollipops I'll give you, once more, showing you have been a good boy. There's a treat for youngsters! even though I've got no box and the Twymmites all cheered again.

Horace! All of the Times roared. "At least three baby dogs you've saved!" exclaimed the owner.

"Well," said Copy. "Don't get excited. I'll get one. I don't get one. I get one. And then we took three more baseballs and threw with all his might."

Just then the grinning pig ran up near. The diver grabbed and cried, "C'mon here!" He managed to get on the pig, and then came lots of fun.

The man who managed to cross the ground and made the diver spin around. "My, what a sight," cried Goddy. "How that funny pig can run."

NEW YORK TURNS BACK

GIANTS EVEN UP COUNT IN SECOND GAME

Schumacher Gives Mates Victory To Divide In Twin Cards; Pittsburgh Wins First Game

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 7.—New York Giants Wednesday successfully off-set the challenges of Pittsburgh Pirates for the National League leadership as they gained an even break in a double-header.

Giants won the 6-3 game advantage over Pittsburgh.

After seeing their lead reduced to one run by the result of the Pirates' 6-3 win in the first game, the Giants came from behind to win the 9-3 decision in the second contest before the final effective seven-inning pitchering of Hal Schumacher.

The Pirates' first game, rather pathetic Tuesday to the fans, was topped by George Gibson's men, turned out to be a good game, packing Forbes Field.

The split gave the Pirates two of the three games played with them more remaining on the schedule next Friday.

New York 100 000 000-3 6 2 Pittsburgh 100 000 120-1 6 1.

Fitzsimmons, Bell and Macneice, Schuman, Chapman, Smith and Gratz.

Second Game: New York 100 000 000-3 12 1 Pittsburgh 100 000 000-18 0.

Schumacher and Macneice, Birlofer, Chapman, Harris, Swift and Gratz.

CARDINALS WIN RECORD

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 7.—Cardinals retained their record of not having been defeated at home since Frankie Frisch became their manager by defeating the Cincinnati of the second game of Wednesday's double-header to vanquish Pittsburgh.

The Cardinals won the opener 3-1.

First Game: Cardinals 100 000 000-1 3 0 St. Louis 100 000 000-3 9 1.

Holley, Pearce and Davis; Halahan and Wilson.

Second Game: Cardinals 100 000 000-12 6 St. Louis 100 000 000-18 2 1.

Mosse, Pfeifer, Hansen and Osterholz.

GETS EVEN BREAK

CINCINNATI, Sept. 7.—Blazing out 21 runs in the second game, Cardinals had an even break in with Brooklyn, winning the nightcap 18-6 after the Dodgers had accumulated a run in the ninth.

First Game: Cardinals 100 000 400-7 14 1 St. Louis 100 000 000-25 5.

Munro and Lepke; Klop, B. Frey, Derringer and Lombardi.

Second Game: Cardinals 100 000 000-8 10 2 Brooklyn 260 000 100-18 21 0.

Benge, Leonard, Shantz, Ryan and Oaten; Bentler and Lombard, Crouse.

Chuck's Champ

Coming down the National League homestretch with a batting average hovering above .375, Chuck Klein seems to have the hall championship won in a walk. Klein is also making a bid for home-run leadership.

GREAT DRAMA OF RUTH WILL SOON BE GONE

Baseball's Famed Picture Will Be But Memory

In Short Time

BY WILLIAM HITT

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—It's a picture that probably has been seen by more people than any other. It is no mere thing built of canvas and oil paint, but a living, breathing picture, which soon shall disappear.

The scene is a ball park with a large crowd of people watching a baseball game. A man in a suit and gray and blue—the team in the field—is running and the umpire is calling him a gimp.

Brown, the starting pitcher for the Sox, was ineffective, giving up three and a third innings before he folded.

Detroit 120 420 200-11 14 1.

Lawson, Higgins and Hawley; Brown, Kline, Fullerton and Goode.

GOES OUT BREAK

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 7.—Three-time Cy Young winner, George Sisler, and his wife, and sons on Wednesdays and as a member of Detroit Tigers took the first place.
